Coronaviruses (SARS-CoV-2) – CKLB Mauritius Update

Port Louis, 09 March 2021 – Due to the resurgence of Covid-19 local community spread, the Government of Mauritius announced a national lockdown from Wednesday 10 March 2021 until 25 March 2021. Only essential services are authorised to operate under predefined conditions.

CKLB Team Response to COVID-19

Accordingly, CKLB Mauritius office in the capital city, Port Louis, will not be opened for business and client meetings during this period. Henceforth, our Work From Home policy is now in force and our employees and resources are designed to cater for this scenario.

Kindly rest assured that you can expect the same level of service that you are used to (except any non-essential services which are not authorised to operate), and we do not expect any disruption in our services as was the case when Mauritius was in lockdown last year.

Our team is fully committed to continue servicing our clients as efficiently as possible. Should you have any queries or any enquiries relating to your business, please do not hesitate to contact your usual relationship person at CKLB by email and they shall promptly revert to you.

We are grateful for your comprehension and we look forward to being of assistance as usual.

Please look after yourself and keep safe.
