Port Louis, 31 March 2021 – The Government of Mauritius announced that the current national lockdown which were due to expire on 31 March will be extended to Friday 30 April 2021, in view of the rising Covid-19 cases. Only essential services are authorised to operate under predefined conditions.

- As from 1st April certain business activities will be allowed to re-open
- Stricter sanitary measures to comply with coupled with increased fine
- Individuals with a work access permit (WAP) can attend their place of work
- National vaccination program currently in progress
- Continued contact tracing exercise on the ground

CKLB Team Response to COVID-19

Accordingly, CKLB Mauritius office in the capital city, Port Louis, will not be opened for business and client meetings during this period. We continue to Work From Home (WFH) and where necessary, staff with a WAP may attend to work in the office on a case by case basis, keeping in mind sanitary measures.

Our team is fully committed to continue servicing our clients as efficiently as possible. Should you have any queries or any enquiries relating to your business, please do not hesitate to contact your usual relationship person at CKLB by email and they shall promptly revert to you.

We are grateful for your comprehension and we look forward to being of assistance as usual.

Please look after yourself and keep safe.
